

A musical evening with the Victor-Victrola

Nothing could please your guests more than to be entertained by the music of the Victrola.

This wonderful instrument places at your command the services of the world's greatest singers and musicians—an array of talent that will win the admiration of your guests, and give them an evening of entertainment that will linger long in their memory.

We will be glad to demonstrate the Victrola to you whenever you find it convenient to stop in—we'll play any music you wish to hear.

There are Victrolas from $15 to $200, and Victors from $10 to $100—and we'll arrange terms to suit you.

Kelly Drug Company

Sole Agents

Gilmer & Baker,
Physicians and Surgeons.
Offices in Polly Building,
Big Stone Gap, Virginia.
All calls answered promptly.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Dr. J. W. Kelly spent Wednesday at Black Mountain on business.

Miss Jessie Gilly, who is teaching at Roda, spent the weekend with homefolks.

Mrs. A. A. Johnson, has returned from a visit to relatives at Corbin.

Mrs. Jennie Dingess spent a few days at Castlewoods last week visiting relatives.

Mrs. R. P. Barron was on the sick list last week with a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Miss Laura Darnell, who is teaching at Imboden, spent Saturday with her parents at Callet.

H. N. Broyles, of Norton, was in the city Friday.

J. L. Litz and C. R. Pepper, of Coeburn, were in the city Saturday.

J. S. Pritchard, of Ashville, was in the city Saturday on business.

Frank Hess, of Point Pleasant, is spending several days in the Gap.

R. L. Ellis, a prominent lumber dealer, of Salem, is here this week on business.

Mrs. H. H. Naft, of Knoxville, is in the Gap visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Willis.

M. E. Hyatt and wife, of Lee county, were in town Monday shopping and taking in the auction sale.

W. S. Goldiron, a prominent farmer of the Cove, was in town Monday on business.

Miss Chloe Beaman received the prize of $5.00 in gold offered by the Globe Realty and Auction Co., for the best essay on "Reasons why the people should buy real estate in Big Stone Gap."

Carl B. Rountree, of Atlanta, who made some excellent moving pictures of Big Stone Gap, and which were shown at the Amuzu on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights to large crowds, spent a few days in town last week.

B. L. Armstrong, of Knoxville, was a business visitor to the Gap one day last week.

Chas. S. Nelson, division manager of Armour & Company, was in town last week on business.

W. H. Gildersleeve, division manager of the tannery and extract plants at this place, was in the city last week on business.

R. L. Gaut, of the Sparger Mills, of Bristol, was in the city Saturday on business.

E. H. Jones, of Richmond, and Jos. Steed, of New York, were in the city Saturday on business.

Dave Skinner, pay roll clerk for the Stone Gap Coal and Coal Company at Keokuk stopped off in the Gap Friday night, en route to his home in Kentucky, where he will spend his vacation.

R. R. Casper, auditor of the Stone Gap Coal and Coal Company, spent a few days the past week in Kentucky on business.

H. M. Hoskins, a prominent lumber man of Bristol, was in the city last week on business.

Attorneys O. L. Osborne and J. S. Dunn, of Bristol, were in town last week on business.

Robert Imboden, of the Virginia and Southwestern Railroad Company, with headquarters in Bristol, was in town this week on business.

The Ladies Presbyterian Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Marvin Kelly Thursday afternoon at three o'clock.

Miss Rose Hamilton, of Middlesboro, spent a few days here visiting her cousin, Miss Lillie Jones.

Mrs. George L. Taylor spent a few days last week visiting relatives in Norton.

Dr. Jas. W. Reed, of Appalachia, was in town Thursday. He left Friday for Newport News where, on October 28th, he was married to Miss Mary Weaver.

Miss Florence Price, of Norton, is spending a few days here visiting Mrs. J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Witt, of Roda, were in the Gap Monday. Mr. Witt having brought the Roda band here to make music for the auction sale.

Mrs. C. L. Mooney has returned to her home at Corbin, after spending several days visiting Mrs. M. L. Olinger.

Hale Steinman, of Philadelphia, and Malcolm Smith returned Monday from Dickenson county, where they have been several days on business.

F. M. Fuller, of Speers Ferry, spent a few days here last week with his sons, J. C. and W. D. Fuller.

Miss Margaret Wade, of Christiansburg, is visiting her brother, C. I. Wade, in the Gap.

Mrs. S. M. Collier and son, Marion, left last Thursday for Knoxville, and after a few days visit there Mrs. Collier left for California to visit her daughter, Mrs. Carden.

Thomas Hagan, of Washington City, has accepted a position with the Interstate Railroad Company at this place, and takes the place of Mr. J. H. Scharf, who has resigned.

Miss Ruby Kemper came down from Appalachia Sunday and spent the day with relatives in the Gap.

J. B. Dougherty, has returned from his vacation spent with relatives in Scott County.

Fred South, general agent for the Indian motorcycle, was seen in town Sunday.

R. L. Pennington, of Jonesville, candidate for House of Delegates from Lee county, was in the Gap Sunday.

Miss Edna Gilly spent Friday at Stone Gap.

W. R. Jessee, of Middlesboro, visited homefolks in the Gap Sunday.

J. C. Moore, returned Monday from a visit to Knoxville and other cities and towns in Tennessee.

The Guild of Christ Church will meet with Mrs. C. L. Nash Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

L. B. Howard and Mr. Robins, of Jonesville, spent last Friday in the Gap.

L. M. Robinett, a prominent young attorney of Jonesville, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Cora Mahaffey spent Friday at Appalachia.

Luther Jessee who has a position with the Stone Gap Coal & Coke Company at Osaka, spent Sunday with homefolks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kilbourne and mother, Mrs. Louise Kilbourne, are moving to Appalachia where they will make their future home.

Mrs. G. W. Lovell, who spent several days in the Gap visiting Mrs. J. L. McCormick and other friends and acquaintances, has returned to her home in Cincinnati.

Miss Virginia Slem, of East Stone Gap, spent Sunday in the Gap visiting relatives.

Miss Zolzie Palmer, who is teaching at Hurricane, near Wise, spent the week-end in the Gap.

Miss Lillie Jones, who is teaching at Kelly View, came down home Friday to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Ollie, to Mr. Will Jones, of Appalachia.

J. W. Sprinkle, of Dante, spent Saturday in town visiting his daughter, Elizabeth, who is attending school here.

Miss Ollie Kelly is spending several days at Stone Gap visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Mitchell.

Misses Kate Sayers and Vera Seny, teachers in the East Stone Gap Public school, were shopping in town Friday.

R. P. Willis and W. A. Head returned Sunday morning from a business trip to Cincinnati.

Robert E. Smith, of Blue Springs, and Miss Nettie Williams, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Williams, of East Stone Gap, eloped to Middlesboro on last Tuesday and were married. The bride is about 17 years old while the groom is about 45. Their many friends wish them a happy married life together.

Rev. and Mrs. Kelso, of Norton, spent Wednesday in the Gap the guests of Rev. and Mrs. I. P. Martin.

Mrs. Lucinda Skeen, of the Cove, spent a few days in the Gap visiting her son, Judge H. A. W. Skeen.

Mrs. Sally A. Bailey was confined to her room several days last week with a severe attack of tonsillitis. Her daughter, Miss Janet, taught her music class here and at Osaka.

D. A. Manson, of the Lovelady Lumber Company, of Jasper, was in the city Friday on business.

The Winning Side

History teaches that meat eating nations have always been the conquerors in war, trade and art.

If you want to be a winner you will have to

Eat Meat

Be sure that the meat is taken from healthy animals and has been prepared in clean, sanitary surroundings. This advice is unnecessary if your meat is obtained at our market. Remember our prices are no higher, but our service is better.

Lane's Meat Market

In Polly Building.

Phone No. 58.

Boys' New Suits $1.25 to $7.00

We specialize in clothes for boys—the little man's interest is carefully looked after at this store—clothes for him are dressy and serviceable. The most complete line in town to select from.

D. C. Wolfe

Open Franklin Heaters Art Arizona

Gives more heat from the amount of coal used than any other heater.

When you buy the Art Arizona Heater you get the most satisfactory stove obtainable. We have a large line in all sizes and styles to meet every requirement.

HAMBLÉN BROS

We have just put in a Fresh Line of

Sunshine Cakes and Bonbons

English Style

The most up-to-date assortment of Cakes ever brought to town. Call and sample them.

E. F. BURGESS

Laid Right Over Wood Shingles

No Dirt, No Bother—In a very short time any building can have its fire-trap covering turned into a modern fire-proof, storm-proof, lightning-proof roof at a very moderate cost—a roof that will last as long as the building and never need repairs.

For Sale by

JOSHUA AND JOHN F. MULLINS, Contractors and Big Stone Gap, Va.

Announcement

We announce with pleasure the opening of our New Drug Store

Wednesday, November 5th at 2 p. m.

We have tried to make this store a credit to our town and one that you can refer to with pride.

Please attend the opening Wednesday and tell us what you think of our efforts.

Mutual Drug Co.